

EUROPEAN COMMISSION

DIRECTORATE-GENERAL FOR ENVIRONMENT

Partnership agreement for EU Green Week 2025 partner events between the European Commission and Silesian Voivodeship, Poland (organiser of a partner event)

1. Benefits and obligations for the organiser of a Partner Event

Benefits

By becoming an EU Green Week Partner:

- You gain a formal right to use the EU Green Week 2025 visual identity.
- You will have the right to use an extensive package of communication materials provided in a downloadable communication toolkit.
- You will be listed in the partner events' section of the EU Green Week website.
- Your event may be selected as an example in a presentation of partner events that will be featured at the high-level EU Green Week conference.
- You may participate in a targeted seminar, in the run up to the EU Green Week 2025.

Obligations

As an organiser of a Partner Event, you agree to promote EU Green Week's messages. The minimum requirement is the obligation to use the EU Green Week title and logo, as supplied in the communication toolkit, on the main communication material for your event (e.g. poster, website, etc.).

Possible additional actions include:

- Creating a link to the EU Green Week website with the EU Green Week visual identity on the website of your organisation.
- Promoting messages related to EU Green Week on social media, using the hashtag #EUGreenWeek.
- Providing a report and photos after the event with the EU Green Week logo visible in the photos.

As an organiser of a partner event, you declare that you will not present information to consumers that can be confusing or misleading and which gives an inaccurate impression of the environmental benefits of a product or an enterprise, better known as “greenwashing”. The European Commission aims to protect consumers against greenwashing by further strengthening consumer protection and by setting minimum requirements for sustainability labels/logos and information tools.

Additionally, the partners are reminded that the objective of the EU Green Week is to be a platform for citizens, policymakers, leading environmentalists, stakeholders, and other interested parties to debate and discuss European environmental policy. As an organiser of a partner event, you also declare that the EU Green Week will not be used for commercial purposes.

2. Conditions of the agreement

- This agreement is concluded between the European Commission, represented by the Directorate General for Environment, Unit ENV.A2, and the named organiser of the partner event (as per the declaration in point 3 below).
- This agreement is to be signed and submitted together with the online application.
- The agreement is valid from the date that the application for a partner event is accepted by the European Commission until the end of the proposed partner event, latest by 30 June 2025.
- Both parties reserve the right to withdraw from the agreement should either partner enter another partnership where a conflict of interest could arise, during the validity period of the partner agreement.
- Both parties reserve the right to withdraw from the agreement where there are justifiable issues which could make it impossible to carry out the event in line with the original plans.
- The European Commission reserves the right to withdraw from the agreement if the organiser of the partner Event fails to fulfil obligations set out in this agreement.

- The European Commission does not accept responsibility for the manner or the context in which the materials provided are presented by the event organiser.
- In implementing this agreement, no financial transaction will occur between the parties of the agreement.
- Each party is solely responsible for any costs, taxes, duties, and any other liabilities (including those related to copyrights etc.) that may be incurred as a result of implementing their obligations of the event partnership agreement.
- In case of breach of agreement by either party, the other party does not have any right to compensation.
- Any questions related to the implementation of this agreement should be submitted to EU Green Week mailbox (ENV-GREENWEEK-PARTNER-EVENTS@ec.europa.eu) within the validity period of the agreement.
