

Green week event

“A resilient Europe: What role for water in a competitive union?”

Final programme

Welcome and introductory remarks by Agnese Danelon, Vice-President Government Relations Europe (Moderator)

Keynote speech:

- Marina Brakalova, Member of Cabinet of European Commission Executive Vice-President Maroš Šefčovič

Opening remarks

- Strengthening the water value chain for enabling Europe’s competitiveness, strategic autonomy and sustainability, Tania Pentcheva, Director Europe Government and Industry relations, Xylem
- Economic model for water and the investment gap, Alexandra de Schonen, Head of EU Affairs, Suez
- Water efficiency and water reuse to the benefit of society, environment and economic growth, Dominique Gatel, Vice-President for Global Public Affairs Water, Veolia
- Rethinking the water sector: Addressing the water-energy nexus for sustainable competitiveness, Mari Haapala, Head of Water, Danfoss
- Decentralized industrial water circularity: an untapped potential and fundament for European competitiveness, Michael Hunnicken, Head of EU Public Affairs, Grundfos

Moderated discussion and Q&A with the audience

Concluding remarks by Moderator

Cocktail reception