Can resources circulate endlessly? Can the balance between humans and nature be restored? "The Mystery of the Circle of Recovery: The Lost Wisdom of the Druids" is an adventurous field game where participants embark on a journey following the trail of the legendary Guardians of the Circle. Their mission is to find and piece together ancient knowledge about the circular economy, recycling, and conscious consumption in order to recreate the Ritual of Recovery and restore the broken cycle of nature.

The game is designed for both individual participants and teams, with 10 thematic checkpoints spread across the town. Each station highlights a key aspect of the circular economy, such as recycling, renewable resources, repair over replacement, waste reduction, and second-hand goods. At each location, a Guardian of the Circle awaits with a challenge—a logic puzzle, practical task, or eco-themed riddle.

As players solve each challenge, they earn pieces of the Druids' forgotten wisdom. To complete the mission, participants must assemble all elements of knowledge and recreate the Ritual of Recovery—a symbol of economic and environmental balance.

This event is more than just an adventure and a fun competition; it is a hands-on lesson in sustainability, demonstrating how recycling and conscious choices can positively impact the environment and air quality.

Many of the challenges are inspired by real-world issues, such as overproduction of waste, air pollution, and excessive resource consumption. The game finale will take place during a local eco-picnic, where participants can enjoy a bonfire, refreshments, and an awards ceremony for the top teams. Alongside the game, there will be various environmental awareness activities and sustainability-themed attractions.

Will the participants find all the Guardians of the Circle and unlock the lost wisdom? The answer awaits those who take on the challenge and become part of this eco-adventure!
