

EU Green Week
PARTNER EVENT
Resilient regions – healthy water and soil for our citizens

How to move towards a feasible European
PFAS restriction?

House of the Dutch Provinces,
Rue de Trèves 59-61, 4th floor

27 June 14h30 –17h30

#WaterWiseEU

14:30 Registration

Welcome with coffee & tea

15:00 Opening by moderators Jacqueline Spuijbroek & Katinka Janssen, EU-representatives province of Zuid-Holland

15:05 Key-note by Hagar Roijackers, regional minister of the province of Noord-Brabant
PFAS in the Dutch regions

15:10 Presentation by Martijn Beekman, policy officer REACH, DG GROW
Introduction to European PFAS-file: update on REACH and other current PFAS restriction processes

15:20 Presentation by Cristina de Avila, Head of Unit Safe and Sustainable Chemicals, DG ENV
State of play Chemical Strategy for Sustainability (2020) and communication on 'essential use of PFAS' (2024)

15:30 Questions from the audience to Mr Beekman and Ms De Avila

15:45 Roundtable on regional perspectives with:

- Sander Mager, vice-president of the Dutch Water Authorities (Unie van Waterschappen)
- Bertil Lustig, drinking water expert Svenskt Vatten
- Monika Bańka, network and policy coordinator European Chemical Regions Network
- Gerard de Leede, Chief Technology Officer Solarge
- Hagar Roijackers, regional minister of the province of Noord-Brabant
- Mohammed Chahim, Member of European Parliament (TBC)

16:30 Drinks

-

17:30

Please register here for participating in the event.