

Programme:

Time: 1 hr

Date: 6th of June 2024

Time: 12:30-13:30 CET

Organizer: Youth for the Rhine

Topic

Empowering Youth for a Sustainable Rhine Future: Building Community and Resilience through the Rhine 2040 Program

Objectives

1. Engage with youth to learn about the Rhine 2040 plan in a digestible and captivating way (awareness/knowledge sharing)
2. Discuss what youth would like to see, what may be missing from the plan or plans they would like to see changed by providing a platform for youth to share their perspectives, ideas, and concerns.
3. Discuss where the basin stands now in progress to these plans.
4. To understand and amplify youth perspectives, values, and voice.

Target audience:

1. Students (15 and up)
2. Early to Mid career water professionals
3. Anyone interested in knowing more about Rhine basin management and governance and getting involved in water governance!

Format:

Webinar

Notable speakers:

Various speakers with different experience and expertise in the Rhine Basin

Activities planned:

1. 4-6 week long social media campaign lead-up (one information post per week) for the "Rhine 2040" Programme Webinar,
2. Webinar
3. Real-time surveys and questionnaires
4. Discussion and debate
5. Sharing audience perspectives with key actors in the Basin after the webinar

Time (minutes)	Activities
5	Introduction to the program, organizers, and youth for the rhine
15	Presentation on Rhine 2040 Speaker: representative from ICPR

5	Q & A
5	Online survey/questionnaire to gauge audience perspectives
25	Breakout session/ Group discussion on areas of youth involvement/passions/expertise for the Rhine 2040 Programme Discussion on where the 2040 Programme falls short/what's missing/where youth can and should be involved more Dissemination of survey will guide parts of the discussion The conversation will be framed by looking at the one place "youth" is mentioned in the 2040 Programme, how can this be enhanced?
5	Conclusion remarks and closing